BIOGRAPHY

The German violinist Tassilo Probst is without a doubt one of the most promising musicians of his generation. He is known for his multi-faceted performance of exceptional virtuosity, emotional depth and captivating stage presence.

Tassilo has been recognised as a prize winner of numerous national and international competitions such as the "Concours International de Violon Tibor Varga" or the "Georges Enescu Violin Competition" and has performed as a soloist with renowned orchestras such as the Konzerthausorchester Berlin, the NFM-Wroclaw Philharmonic, the George Enescu Philharmonic Orchestra, the Südwestdeutsche Philharmonie and many more.

In addition to his solo activities, he is also an enthusiastic chamber musician. His chamber music partners include Daniel Müller-Schott, Alban Gerhardt, Danjulo Ishizaka and Kit Armstrong. He has also shared the stage with pianist Lang Lang and violinist Daniel Hope, who said of him, "Tassilo is an outstanding young violinist and musician with a strong will, a unique sound and an impressive command of his instrument." In the coming season, Tassilo will perform Bach's Double Concerto several times with Daniel Hope and the Zurich Chamber Orchestra.

His debut CD Into Madness, released in 2022 as a co-production of Bayerischer Rundfunk and the Berlin Classics label with pianist Maxim Lando, was named Best Chamber Music CD of the Year at the International Classical Music Awards.

After completing his Bachelor's degree at the Hochschule für Musik und Theater in Munich at the age of 19, Tassilo is now studying for his Master's degree with Prof. Linus Roth at the University of Augsburg. He receives additional musical impulses from Prof. Zakhar Bron at his academy in Interlaken/Switzerland.

As a scholarship holder of the Deutsche Stiftung Musikleben Tassilo, plays a violin by Giovanni Grancino (Milano 1690).
